

Hey, leave her alone!

Great, now what do I do? I don't even know if I can use this sword!
And what is this girl, anyways?

Hey, what the hell do you think you're doing?
I saw it first, and... wait... you're...

Y-you're the Grand Templar!

Uh... I am?

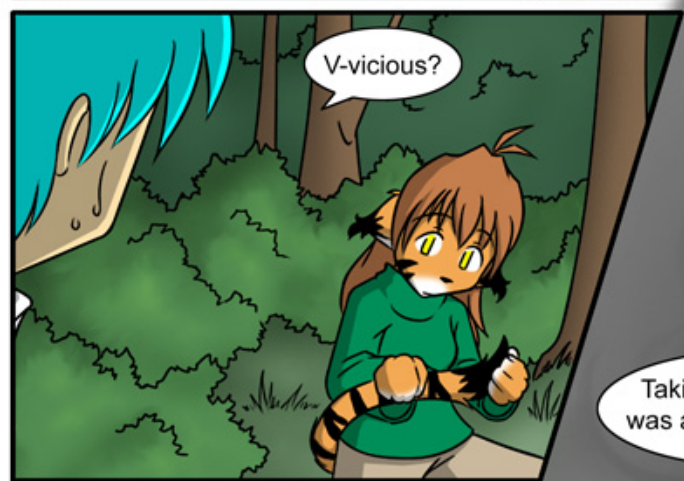

My apologies, Master Templar.
I didn't realize it was you.
The Keidran's all yours.
Goodbye, Trace.

Uh... bye...

Be careful around that one,
though. You may want to dispatch her quickly. She can be vicious.

V-vicious?

Yes, good.
This may work out after all.

Taking his memories
was a stroke of genius.

My enemy has become
my greatest asset.
What better way to protect the girl than with the human's own weapon?

Now I just wait...

...and hope they don't kill
each other... just yet...

Hey, there! Are you alright?
Don't worry, that guy won't hurt you now.

Jeez, what am I doing?
That guy said this thing is dangerous!

But... though she looks like an animal... I get the feeling she's intelligent as well.
Hope she doesn't attack me...

Well, she isn't responding to anything I've said to her. Maybe she isn't intelligent.

But I still won't hurt her for no reason. It just wouldn't be right...

I'll just leave her here. I'm sure she'll be fine on her own.

See you later... uh... whatever you are.
